DAY OF ATOMEMENT,-The Day of Atonement, the most important of the Jewish church holidays, begins at sunset to day, and will be observed until the corresponding hour to-morrow. It is a day devoted to fasting and prayer The fast begins this evening and continues for fully twenty-four hours, dur ing which time the Israelites who observe the day abstain entirely from food and drink. Hervices will be held in all of the synagogues this evening, and again to morrow morning, and the worship pera remain in the synagogue all day until nightfall, when the conclusion of the day of fasting, penitence and prayer is announced by a single blast from the ram's horn. The prayers recited include prayers for forgiveness and confession of sins. There are also apecial services in memory of the dead and repetition in part of the services as conducted by the High Priest on the Day of Atonement in the great Temple be fore its destruction. During the me morial services it is customary for worshippers to give donations for the supparted relatives.

LETTER PROM FATEFAX

Oursepondence of the Lerandra (assets). Busk Hill, Beps. 15.—Monday even-ing at the home of Mr. Thos. Walsh. Burgundy, sear here, was gathered to a beautiful grove surrounding this gentleman's place a select concourse of the very many friends of Misses Lizzie. Theresa, Leo and Anna, the charming and popular daughters of our bost, who contest his extradition from France by had inaugurated and gotten up a lawn party, and they are specially to be commended on account of its elegant location—a prettier spot could not have been found, affording a panoramic view of Alexandria and other objects of interest adjacent thereto. On three sides of this picturesque spot were stretched ropes on which were sucpended Chinese lanterns of differently illuminated colors. A refreshment stand was in close proximity where delicious cake, ice cream and other edibles were dispensed by a committee quite a number had assembled and it presented an animated scene. This was still further augmented as the evening shades grew on. Mr. T. Patterson, the liveryman of Alexantance away. After the shades of night had fallen over all nature and the Chinese lanterns were lighted—the bright smiles of lovely ladies flitting here and there presented a pleasing picture. The sterner sex were also present in equal number. Three young ladies present were the belles of the evening and claimed much attention Misses Gertrude and Josephine Harlow, of Alexandria and Miss Theresa Burleigh, of Jacksonville, Fla Amongst the others present we would mention Miss Mamie Donnelly, o. Washington, Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Walsh John Mangan, Miss Anna Bute, Mr. Will Cooke and Mr. P. Herlihy, of the same city. The last named evidenced a spurt of generosity by donating the committee of ladies the sum of $5 toward the general fund, also Mr. Fitz Jones, of Norfolk. Miss Effic Williamson, of Accotink, Va., one of Fairfax's fair daughters, Alexandria city and Fairfax of course had its contingent of charming ladies and good looking men. The ladies that assisted the Misses Walsh to make this pleasant occasion what it proved to be n a financial sense were Mrs. Clarence French, Miss Julia Nevitt, Miss Maude Roach and Miss Rose Bales, and nobly and well each did her duty. The total amount from all sources reached the gratifying sum of $50, which is to be applied to the benefit of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Alexandria, Va. While a freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad was passing through Rahway, N. J., last night a car was derailed in crossing a frog, causing a bad wreck which derailed trafof all kinds for six hours. Five cars were telescoped and three of the wrecked cars sub-sequently caught fire. The monetary loss by the accident is estimated at $20,000. No one was injured. The stoppage of traffic gave rise to reports of a most alarming nature.

The victims of the railway accident of Sunday evening last at Mad river bridge, on the Arcata railroad, in California, now number six, and it is probable that two more of the injured may die.

The long over due fruit steamer Ethelred, concerning the safety of which there had been considerable anxiety, arrived at Fortress Monroe, Va., last night.
